

Archetypal Tarot Counseling™

Phase I

April, 15th through 18th 2012

Breitenbush Hot Springs, Oregon

This three year, three phase workshop teaches the use of Tarot cards in wellness counseling. Students will receive certification after each phase.

In a relaxed atmosphere, the workshop begins with a brief review of the history of Tarot cards and then delves right into the study of the artistic symbols found on the faces of the cards. The students begin to understand how the upper and lower levels of the archetypes represent innate forces in the life of all people. The principles of dream interpretation are used in a way that assists in reading of the cards. The students deepen their understanding of the human condition through group discussions concerning inner imagery, shamanism and transpersonal assessment techniques.

Participants begin to keep a Tarot workbook and a dream journal to record experiences of the cards and meditation and visualization experiences.

An analytic approach is taken with Tarot as a modality for exploring life issues. Two styles are used with the cards: divinatory and interactive. By the end of the workshop the student will have a basic understanding of several Jungian concepts as well as an intimate knowledge of the cards and how to use them in self-development. They will be given parameters for working with others at an apprenticeship level.
